Risk Warning

Trading on financial markets carries risks. Contracts for Difference ('CFDs') are complex financial products that are traded on margin. Trading CFDs carries a high level of risk since leverage can work both to your advantage and disadvantage. As a result, CFDs may not be suitable for all investors because you may lose all your invested capital. You should not risk more than you are prepared to lose. Before deciding to trade, you need to ensure that you understand the risks involved taking into account your investment objectives and level of experience.

Furthermore, the Client acknowledges that any performance indicated in the past does not necessarily mean that such performance will be repeated in the future. In addition, any forward-looking statements are based on estimations, projections and beliefs, therefore such information should not serve as the basis of any investment / trading actions or decisions. The Client acknowledges that no representation is made as to the profits or losses of any future investment and the Client should use his/her own judgement and act accordingly.

Risk Warning

Trading on financial markets carries risks. Contracts for Difference (“CFDs”) are complex instruments and carry a high level of risk since leverage can work both to the Client’s advantage and disadvantage. Leveraged products may not be suitable for everyone and may result in loss of a client’s capital. The Client should consider whether he/she understands how CFDs work and whether trading is appropriate for him/her. The Client should not invest money that he/she cannot afford to lose. Before deciding to trade, the Client needs to ensure that he/she understands the risks involved, taking into account his/her investment objectives and level of experience.
